EDUCATION

FIRST AID CERTIFICATES

Eighteen First Aid Certificates were issued to qualified members, the first of the month. The new class of twenty-five are now in their third week of instruction.

LIFE SAVING SCHOOL

Carthel Brantley and Curtis Floyd were sent to the Fort Douglas Swimming School for a week of training and taking examinations for a Life Saving Certificate. Floyd qualified and will receive a certificate. Brantley was unable to participate after arriving due to a physical defect.

NEW SCHEDULE

The new schedule of classes for the period from August to October has been made up, however, due to the sending out of Technical Foremen to Spike Camps the program will be handicapped in vocational subjects for a short time.

IT WILL BE POSSIBLE FOR THOSE LEAVING IN SEPTEMBER TO COMPLETE THEIR FIRST AID COURSES.

PROFICIENCY CARDS

Proficiency Cards will be issued to qualified members in a few days. There is a plan in the Corp Area that will materialize in the near future of issuing cards of merit. Unit Certificates will be issued after twelve hours of instruction has been given under the Four Step Method. This certificate will only cover one unit of the subject being taught. Proficiency Cards will follow the Unit Certificates and as a final reward a Diploma will be issued to those qualifying and having had at least 144 hours of instruction.

TRADE SCHOOL

Information has been obtained for those desiring to enter a Trade School. The Frank Wiggins Trade School of California is a free school and anyone is eligible to attend although preference is given to California students.

JOKES

Moran--"How did you lose your hair?"

Lt. S.--"Worry."

Moran--"What did you worry about?"

Lt. S.--"About losing my hair."

XXXXXXXXXXXXXXXXXXXXXXXXXXXXXXXXXXXX

Fred. N.--"Yessir, pardner, as long as I've known my girl here, she's still thirty."

J.B.-- "Years, of course?"

Fred N.-- "Naw, degrees!"

XXXXXXXXXXXXXXXXXXXXXXXXXXXXXXXXXXXX

Many a CCC boy starts a puppy love affair only to wind up a few months later tied down in the dog house.

XXXXXXXXXXXXXXXXXXXXXXXXXXXXXXXXXXXX

Moran determined to pass his favorite beer parlor on his way to camp. As he approached it he became somewhat shaky, but after plucking up courage, he passed it. Then, after going about fifty yards, he turned saying to himself: "Well done, Flash, come back and I'll treat you."

XXXXXXXXXXXXXXXXXXXXXXXXXXXXXXXXXXXX

Knox-- "Repulse me and I'll show you the real beast I am."

Gal--"Aw, don't be an ass!"

Gal--"My sweetie, Muff gets dizzy from cigarettes."

Friend--"Is that what inhaling them doe to him?"

Gal--"No, that's what bending down and picking them off the sidewalk does to him."

XXXXXXXXXXXXXXXXXXXXXXXXXXXXXXXXXXXX

Girl-- "You know, you have the most engaging smile."

Buzzy-- "So what?"

Girl--"I'll announce our engagement this evening."

XXXXXXXXXXXXXXXXXXXXXXXXXXXXXXXXXXXX

Boarder in Missouri-- "Why is it that old hog keeps trying to come into my room? Do you think he has taken a fancy to me?"

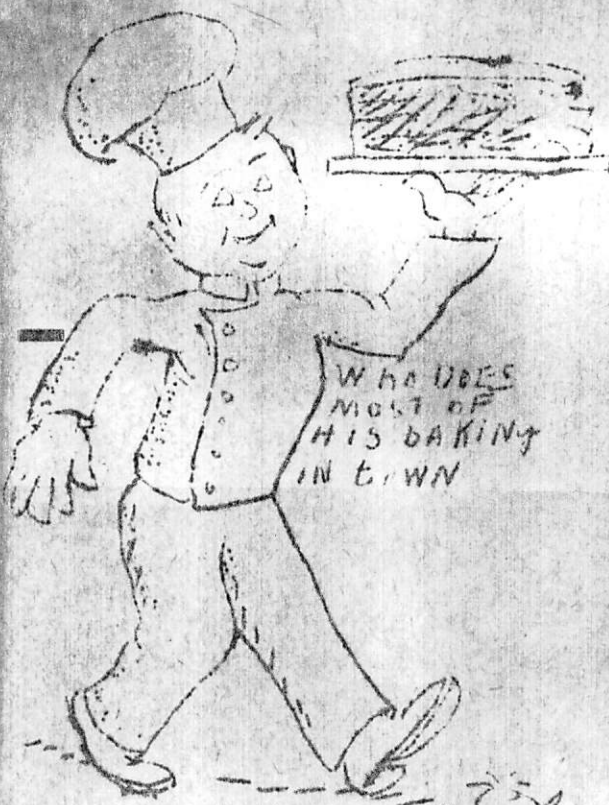

Corky-- "Why, that's his room in winter."

XXXXXXXXXXXXXXXXXXXXXXXXXXXXXXXXXXXX

"If I were you," a jeweler advised Buzzy, "I wouldn't have 'H.B. to his dearest L.J.' engraved on the ring because if she changes her mind you can't use the ring again."

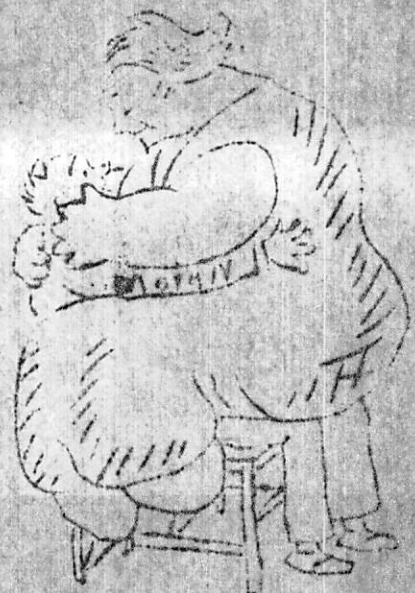

What would you suggest? asked B. "I would suggest the words: 'From H.B. to his first and only love.'"
